The journey of life
Begins when you take your first step

You reach and search for that
One special moment
When you finally find yourself.

In the beginning,
We understand
Neither ourselves,

nor the world,
full of people .

But, somehow,
In time,
We shall find Ourselves....
Along with each Other.

We are one in ourselves,
Searching for our own true identity.

A life imagined shall become a life lived.

Remember all you've learned,
Take it with you and teach others.

Life is not a destination
Only a journey.

COMPETITION

The Commander Varsity Football Squad had a real up and down season. Although their record wouldn't show it, the Commanders put forth super efforts and made many games tough for opponents.

Ike's gridders battled their way to a 2-6-1 record.

Highlighting the season was a season opening victory over Flint Beecher, 28-27. The win marks the 6th consecutive year Eisenhower has won its first game of the year.

Coach Fenton, Tutera, and Mikolajczak, saw many players join the injury list and must admit it showed in the latter part of the season.

Outstanding achievement was shown by Mike Morley, Kevin Kocks, John Sweeney, and Bill Bierlein, who sparked the seniors while Rick Payk, Kevin Kryk, Jim Graebner, and Dave McCarger improved and shined for the juniors.

Steve Burril (50), Bill Bierlein (76), Jim Levy (80), Kevin Kocks (30), Dave McCarger (34), and Gary Davis (66) show their Commander Power.

Kevin Kocks proves that he believes, too, as he bursts through the sign.

Offensive players Ken Cairns (72) and Jim Levy (80) scramble on the line.

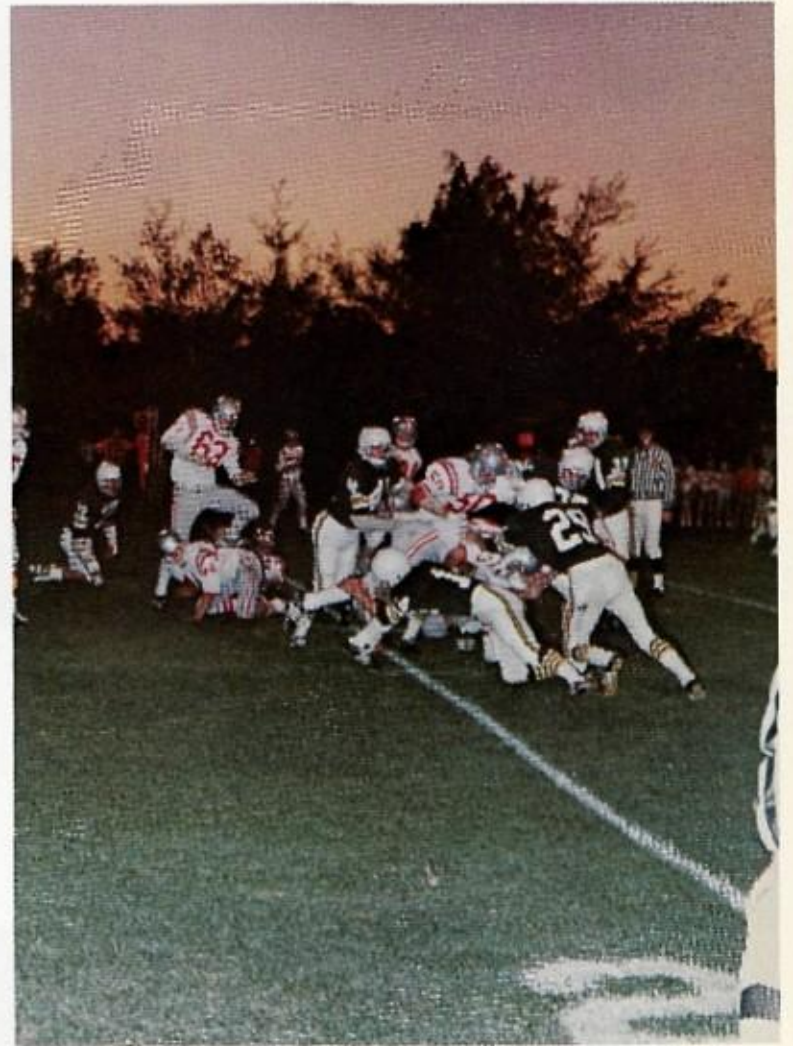

Mike Vanderlip and Dr. Packer tend to Mike Morley's injured leg.

Hard hitting and plain aggressive playing was the game plan for Ike's J.V. Football Team.

Most of the J.V.'ers games were close with a few going the other way. Leading tacklers were Dave Krynak, Moe Brown, and Jay Field.

Bill Shapleigh and Mark Keyser balanced the backfield with quarterback Andy Baird being the backbone of the offensive attack.

"A smile says it all," was the motto of the Varsity Pom Pon Squad as they kicked their way to success at summer camp.

The fourteen member squad earned $2,000 which flew them to Maryville College, in St. Louis, Missouri.

The girls rated highly in their nightly performances, as they grabbed a first place ribbon each time.

Through all of the hard work and excitement they were awarded five blue ribbons, a first place trophy for routine originality, the showmanship trophy, the kick competition ribbon, and the song competition ribbon. The girls received the first place trophy as grand champs of the camp.

The squad then traveled to Chicago, Illinois for the Midwest Championship, where they proved themselves well again. They received a trophy ranking them fourth in the midwest for originality.

The Varsity and Junior Varsity Cheerleading Squads were chosen in the spring and immediately began earning their way to summer camp in Boulder, Colorado.

The Varsity girls brought home the top honor of "Grand Champion." They also received the "friendliest squad award," and four blue ribbons in the daily competition.

J.V. did an outstanding job also, by bringing home one third place ribbon and two first place ribbons in the daily competition. Both squads together received the "Spirit Award" on the first night of camp.

Six All-Sport cheerleaders were chosen to support the teams other than football and basketball. These girls along with the six freshman cheerleaders, which were selected in the fall, have shown that they have much talent.

All four squads are continuously working towards raising school spirit and supporting the teams.

"Best season ever" describes how well the 1976-77 Varsity Basketball Team did as they finished with an overall record of 15 wins 5 losses and a WPC record of 8-2.

Hard work and determination saw Coach Jerry Berg and his team at their best. With great height and ability rebounding became the key for success.

Co-captains Craig Tucker and Mike Morley were chosen for WPC first and second team respectively along with Mark Anderson chosen for honorable mention. Morley, breaking the school assist record, was also named most valuable player along with most improved player going to junior Dave Collette.

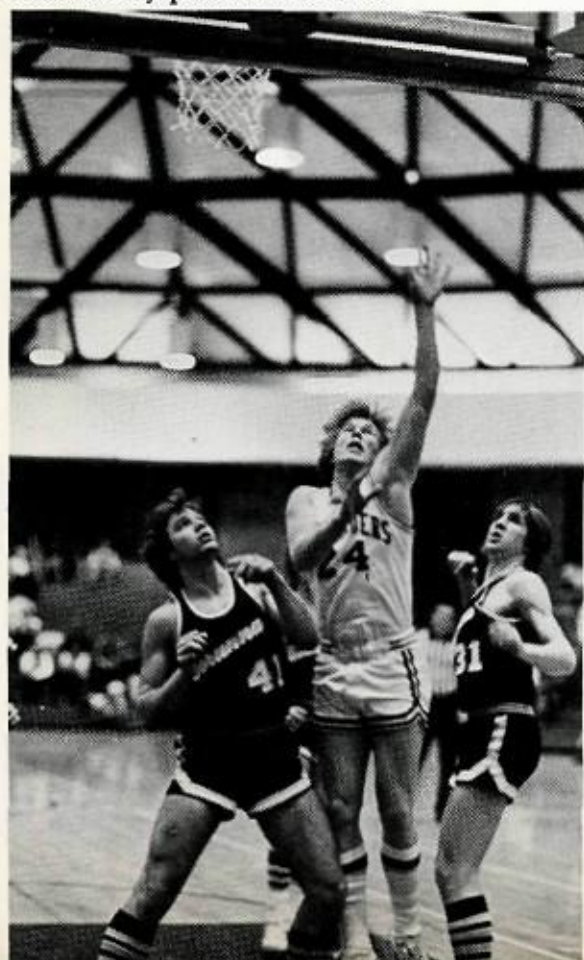

Much improvement came from seniors Mark Kraynak, Jeff Driscoll, Craig Tucker and Tim McLellan along with Anderson, Morley, Tucker, and Kraynak all averaging points in double figures.

By their outstanding season the Commanders proved how practice pays.

13 and 7

Ike's Junior Varsity Team ended their season with 13 wins and 7 losses to put them in 2nd place for the White Pine Conference.

Their most exciting game was played at Buena Vista, where the Commanders beat the Knights for the first time on their home court.

Five of the top players during the season were Andy Baird, Harry Lanphear, Bob Moore, Mitch Westhoff, and Todd Williams.

The team came in second place in the Midland Dow Tournaments which took place during winter break.

Both Freshman A and B Teams finished their seasons with 12-4 records.

Tony Jessop, Bruce Nordin, the two co-captains, and Doug McKinley were the three leaders of the team.

Coach Dick Bomboske commented that a lack of height hurt the team, but a pressing defense has also won games for them.

Leading rebounder for the season was Doug McKinley. Bruce Nordin was considered by Coach Bomboske as the most improved and most valuable player.

Freshman B Team was a very well balanced team. "We had 11 players of equal ability," commented Coach Boswell. Every player played every game, and the starting line-up was different for every game.

Matt VanderBorgh and Darrin Jensen are considered by Mr. Boswell as his most improved players.

After getting off to a slow start of one and four, this year's girls' swim team pulled through and won five of their last seven meets.

The highlight of the season was a splashing victory over the highly favored Chargers of Midland Dow.

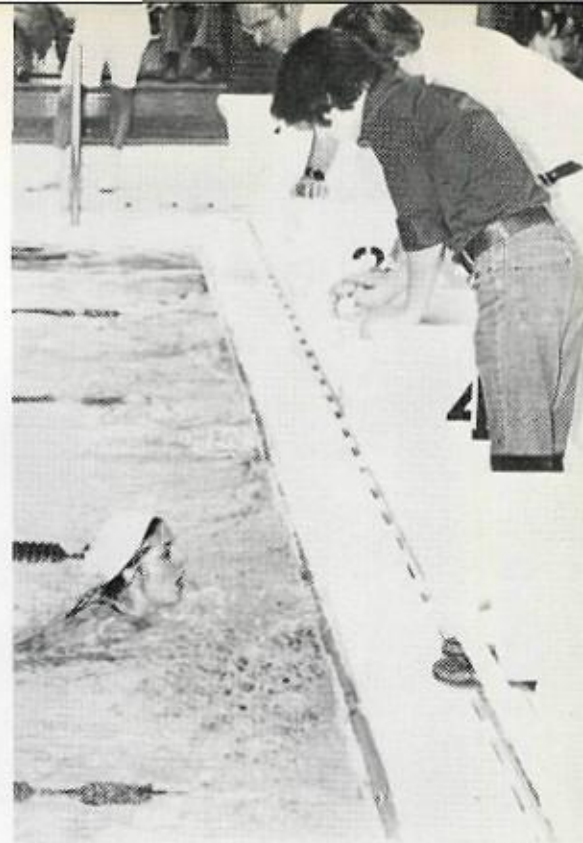

The team's four top swimmers, Missy McClellan, Julie Rawls, Mary McClellan, and Mindy Lehman, qualified for the Class A State Swimming Meet hosted at Central Michigan University. Mary McClellan had the honor of placing fourth in the state, in the 100 yard freestyle. The Commander girls sent more swimmers to this meet than any other team in the Tri-City area.

Eisenhower's Wrestling Team compiled a dual meet record of 7 wins and 7 losses during this past season. The highlight of the dual meet competition was Eisenhower's victory over arch-rival MacArthur in the MacArthur gym, by a score of 36 to 28.

In the White Pine Conference, Eisenhower compiled a record of 3 wins and 2 losses, and placed fourth in the Conference Meet held at Bridgeport High School. Eisenhower had two individual Conference Champions in Junior Steve Gorte, who successfully defended his title in the 155 pound division, and Senior, Dan Collison, who won the title in the 178 pound division.

Several of our wrestlers compiled fine records for themselves with Steve Gorte being the Varsity point leader, with a combined record of 21 wins and 5 losses. Dan Collison led the team in the most pins for the season, and scored 23 wins against 7 losses.

Juniors, Gary Leeson and Steve Gorte were elected to be next year's Co-Captains, and Gorte, in addition, was named by his teammates as the Most Valuable Wrestler for the second year in a row. Freshman, Pat Ramirez, who posted a fine record of 16 wins and 11 losses in his first year of Varsity competition was voted Most Improved Wrestler for this past season.

Coached by Mr. Terry Boswell, the Girls' Varsity Basketball Team completed a successful season. Their overall record was 12 wins, 7 losses. A White Pine record of 8 wins and 2 losses earned the girls the conference championship for the second year in succession.

The team was well balanced. Six different players paced the teams scoring at various times throughout the season. Leading scorers were senior, Vicki LeBlanc, and sophomore Diane Forrester. Diane contributed a White Pine Conference average of 11.6 points per game and Vicki an average of 9.9 points per game. Barb Chaklos, also a senior, led the Commanders with 100 rebounds in the White Pine Conference.

Defense was also an important factor to the girls' season. Foiling the opponents offense was the main objective for the season.

Coach Cindy Bomboske did a great job of arranging two multiple readings for Readers' Theater this year. "Thurber Country" was a reading made up of a collection of James Thurber's fables which all displayed the wit and humor of the author.

Another reading was "Fall River Incident." It presented the conflicts in the Lizzie Borden trial and asked the audience to be the judge and jury to decide if she were guilty or innocent.

This year's Readers' Theater and forensics teams followed Eisenhower's tradition of performing excellent multiples and readings; both groups brought many honors for the school.

Les Bravender, Jan Bonga, Jackie Taylor, and Bryan Cupp perform "Thurber Country."

SENIORS

Vicki LeBlanc, secretary.

Terry Phelan, treasurer.

Seniors this year planned activities to promote closeness and involvement among their class. A roller skating party, tobogganing party, ice-skating party, and the traditional Senior party were all well attended.

Class of '77 started the tradition of the graduation class sponsoring a full page in the yearbook.

All green caps and gowns were chosen by the smallest class ever to be graduated from Eisenhower. On June 5, 1977, their journey through Eisenhower ended with graduation.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Homecoming 76!

This One's For You...was the theme for Homecoming '76. A week full of pride and activities led up to the welcoming home of the alumni and the crowning of the queen.

During a pep rally on October 8th, seven girls, who had been selected by the student body, were announced as this year's Homecoming Court.

Brightly decorated areas kicked off the beginning of Homecoming week. Winning for their 4th consecutive year was the "Class of 77."

Wednesday, court members and their escorts were presented to the student body during a special assembly. Later in the evening, following the freshman football victory, a bonfire took place adding a "spark" to the week's activities.

Thursday afternoon the junior and senior girls proved to many that football is not just for guys. Weekend practices, huddles, injuries, laughs, patience, hut one...hut two..., it all ended in a 16-16 tie.

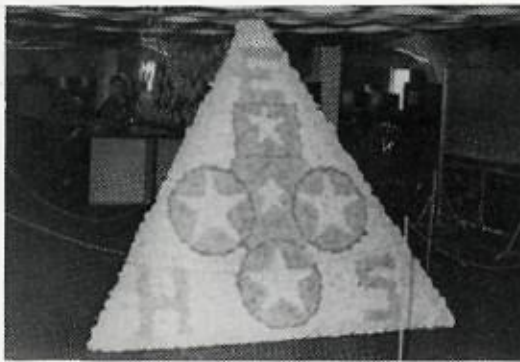

Spirit showed all through Friday leading up to the game against B.V. in which the Commanders were victorious.

Concluding the week, the annual Homecoming Dance featured the music of "Harbour."

For Queen Terry and her court it was a dream come true, and for all who took part in the Homecoming activities, it was a week never to be forgotten.

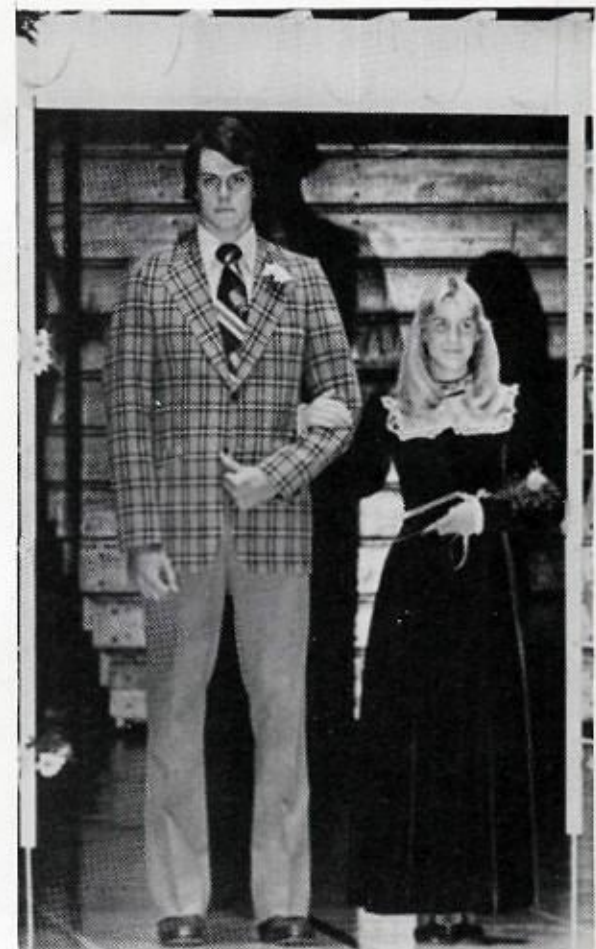

TOUCHDOWN! Junior and Senior girls battle it out in their own game of football.

Juniors' decoration shows like pride!

Carl Hessey and David Biver dig into the pancake eating contest!

Darrin Jenson and Pat Collison look a little stuffed, as Mikki Page serves them more pancakes.

Varsity Pom-pom girls swing to the 60's beat.

The swinging sixties were, Elvis Presley, Sonny and Cher, long hair and the freedom movements, that revolved around the hippies and the "peace" people. Dressing for and imitating the styles of the sixties were a change from Eisenhower's traditional fifties day.

The student body managed to raise $327.20 for the Childrens Leukemia Foundation. The day's activities included a six hour dance marathon, a pancake eating contest and a school assembly seventh hour.

The Forum sponsored event was a history marker for Eisenhower High School.

There were sights to be seen, on Ike's third annual Goblins Day. Students were dressed in almost every costume imaginable.

The day's events included a cracker eating contest and an assembly at which prizes were awarded for best costumes, a pie auction was also held which helped raise over $150 for UNICEF. All in all the day was a great success.

Steve Lackner, Shelly Stelter, and Jim Graebner crusade for UNICEF.

Forum strives toward goals

Senior Representatives: Barb Chaklos, Sue Tinney, Lori Farnum, Tom Ginster, Shelley Matson, Ann Cooper, Vicki LeBlanc.

Since D.D. Eisenhower opened, the Forum has been an important factor in initiating programs to benefit the students and community.

Programs such as Goblins Day sponsored to raise money for UNICEF, Recognition Night to give public credit to those students who have achieved a high quality in their endeavors and blood drives to help the community.

The Forum has the right and responsibility to see that the wishes of the school are considered and acted upon.

They meet every day as a class and once a month at night.

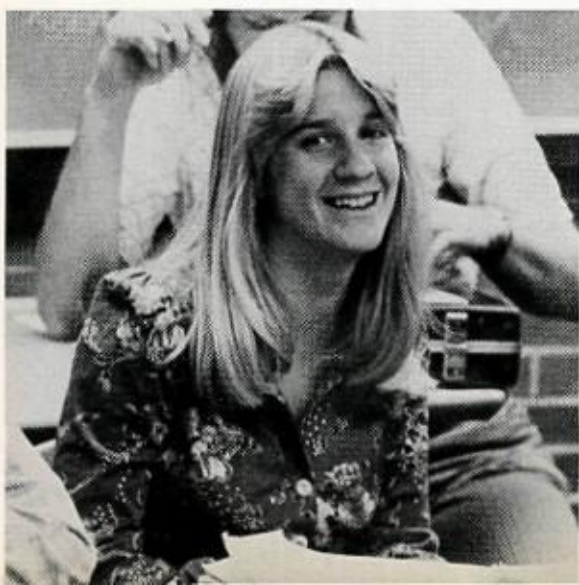

The Forum consists of eight students who are elected from each of the four classes and are elected by their own class. Eight teachers who are elected by the faculty, two administrators, a custodian, and a secretary.

We've Got Spirit

Seniors await the results of the competition cheer

The Varsity Pom-pom Girls welcome the freshmen by doing a Mickey Mouse routine.

The students rush anxiously to get to their next class after a pep assembly.

This year's pep assemblies were a great influence on the school. The enormous spirit was displayed all year round by the students at Ike.

Mr. Doane's enthusiasm helped make the assemblies a great success. Each class participated in a skit, the pom-pom girls took part by doing a routine, and the cheerleaders had many new cheers to promote spirit.

The pep assemblies, here at Ike, showed our spirit was number one.

The wicked witch of the west, Lance Mead.

Julie Gilbert, student conductor, and the band, play the fight song.

Three varsity cheerleaders Marsha Putnam, Kristy Cardinal, and Maria Rasalan, show the crowd that "We're number one."

Mike Morley has just been announced "King."

Meet the Candidates

Judge Gilbert speaks to the students on Meet the Candidate Day.

1976 was an election year. The gym became a "political arena" as Eisenhower moved into the political spirit with a meet the candidates assembly sponsored by the Forum. Special assembly committee chairperson Annette Ponichtera with, advice from government teacher Thelvis "Bo" Winiecki, invited candidates from the community for the October 25th assembly.

Commentator, Thomas Ginster helped enlighten students political awareness by introducing candidates for public offices which ranged from county drain commissioner to candidates for the United States Congress.

Democrat J. Bob Traxler states his point of view.

Forum prepares the gym for the candidates' assembly.

Candidates wait their turn to speak.

Under the direction of Mrs. Linda Schopp, this year's Concert Choir has grown to be a group which can be proud of their success.

Their Annual Christmas Concert was the best they have ever presented. An important part of the choir this year, was a group called, "Pieces of Eight." They sang at many activities inside and out of Eisenhower.

Mrs. Schopp has been a great asset to Eisenhower's Choir.

Sue Lynch and Lena Hagerman work behind the scenes.

Tim Rosin portrays the President.

After weeks of hard work, the Drama Club, under the direction of Miss Ruth Anne Sowle presented the play, "The Mouse That Roared" for the fall of '76.

The play centered around a small country; Grand Fenwick, which declared war on the United States for imitating Grand Fenwick's source of income-their wine.

The situation almost ended in disaster as the army of Grand Fenwick captured an extremely powerful Q-bomb from the United States.

The cast included Bridget Laundra, playing Glorianna the Twelfth and Brian Cupp playing Tully Bascom. Also included in the cast was foreign exchange student Jan Bonga, who played the part of Kokintz. Jan kept the audience laughing throughout the play.

Karen Dey and Mary Casey practice for the Christmas Concert.

Eisenhower's 1976-77 Band underwent some big changes this year. A new band director, Mr. Harry B. Wallerstein, and a huge group of freshman provided for a new and enthusiastic class.

During marching season they performed at Friday football games and pep assemblies. Basketball band was divided into two groups lead by student conductors Julie Gilbert and Rex Rossman.

Other activities included winter and spring concerts, band festival, solo and ensembles, and fund raising projects.

The support of the Band Booster Association kept the band on its feet, and on its way to becoming the best band at Eisenhower in quite a few years.

Greg Allen and Ron Ruffini listen to directions on the field.

Mr. Wallerstein shows his conducting style.

Organizations

The large membership of the Pep Club sold Eisenhower Commanders stickers to help raise money for this year's homecoming festivities. "This One's for You" was the theme.

With the theme of, "You Belong", sports players were involved in the Friday pep assembly skits. "We Believe" and "You Belong" flipcards were seen in the Senior cheering section.

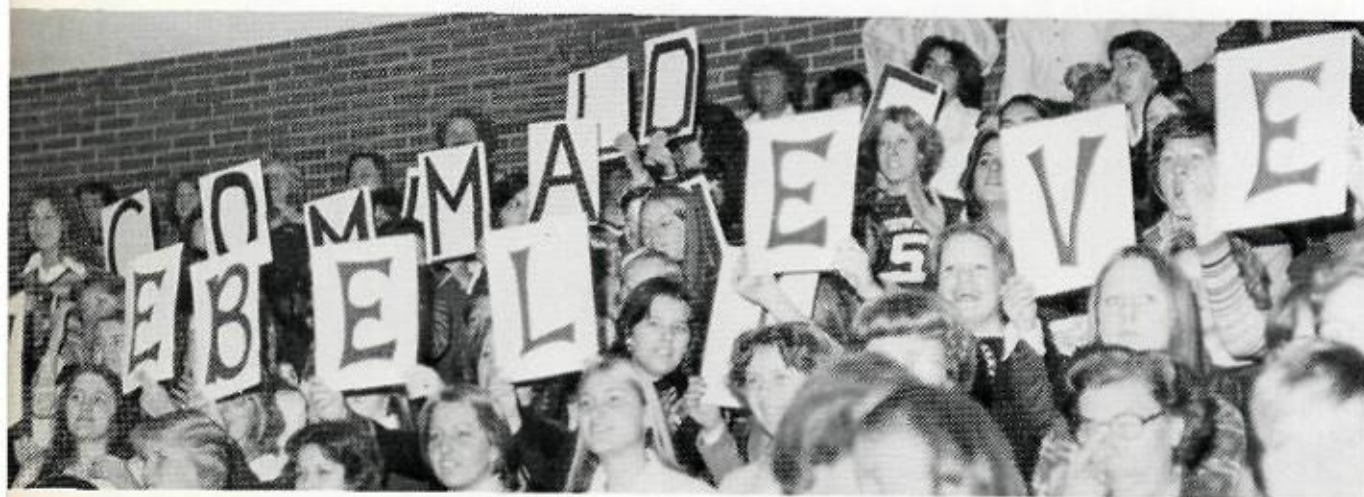

Freshmen were welcomed into Eisenhower at the first assembly by a cheerful Mickey Mouse poster. Mr. Doane was the emcee of assemblies again this year.

PEP CLUB

Four year member, Sue Tinney, really enjoyed holding the office of Pep Club President.

Hey, We've got spirit

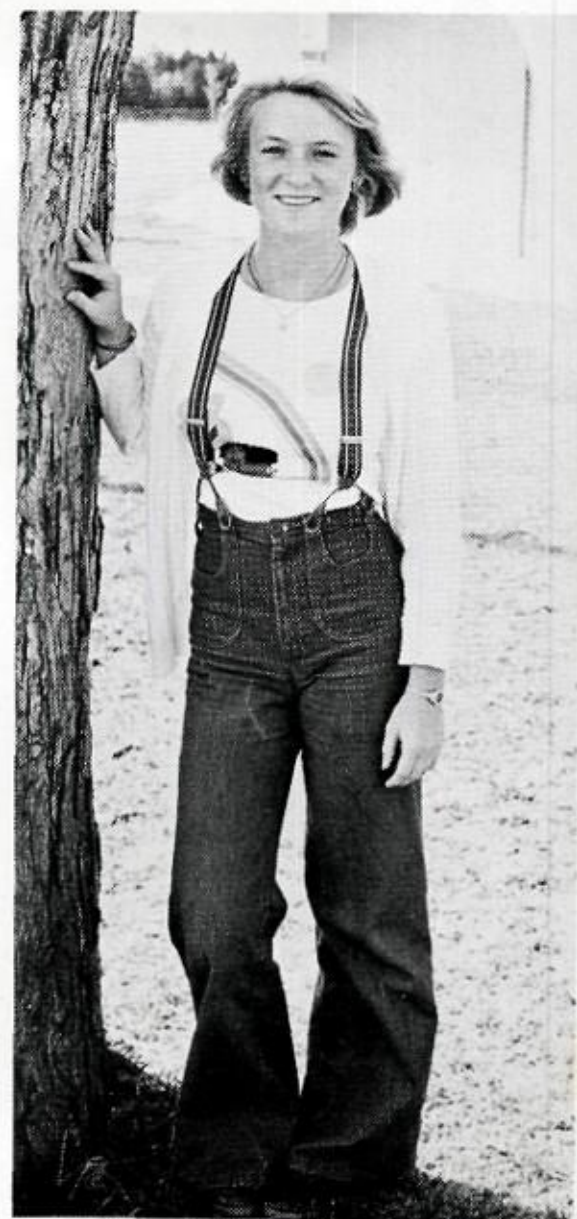

Senior spirit!

This year's treasurer was junior Marsha Putnam, a three year member.

Three year member Missy Neuendorf, a junior, held the office of secretary.

Shawn Curbey, a member for four years, was elected vice-president in her senior year.

How about you?

Rex Rossman asks, "Is this one for me?" as he buys his homecoming ticket from Jean Preston.

A smiling Mickey Mouse welcomed the Freshman class.

National Honor Society

Front Row: Advisors: Miss Stephanie Polzin, Mrs. Sue Schulz. Second Row: Ellen Jackson, Treasurer; Sandy Sears, President; Jane Whelton, Secretary; Jack McClellan, Vice-President.

Seventy-five seniors composed the National Honor Society for the 1976-1977 school year. Each member was required to have a 3.5 grade point average plus leadership abilities.

This year's club was honored to have four exchange students as honorary members. They were Susanne Ebeling, Lena Hagerman, Olof Linder, and Cecilia Wejryd.

A great deal of effort and time was spent by the members helping out with the fund-raising Monday night bingo.

The annual club banquet, conducted at the school this year, was a big success for the induction of the new junior members.

Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll is a national honorary for high school journalists. Its purpose is to encourage and reward individual achievement in journalism, photography, and school publications.

This was Eisenhower's second year of membership. High standards are maintained for individual student membership; the member must meet these qualifications, be a Senior or a Junior in the top third of their class, have done superior work in some phase of journalism or school publication, be recommended by the advisor of school publications, and be approved by the Executive Secretary of the Society.

Publications advisor Miss Elizabeth Spaulding was sponsor for the group.

Biology II Club Formed at Ike

A new addition to Eisenhower's list of clubs and organizations was the thirty-six member Biology II Club.

The Club was organized to help fund the Biology II class which many seniors needed. Money raised from dances was used to purchase lab materials. Members took a trip to the Dow Chemical Research Lab. Advisor for the Club was Mr. Kim Kolbe. Meetings were held during the beginning of first hour.

Members of this year's foreign language Clubs all shared the common interests of learning foreign customs, cultures and cross district differences.

Spanish Club's fund raising activities brought in enough money, to support a child in Mexico. The group sold caramel apples, candy canes and celebrated the end of their year with an international dinner.

German Club encountered something new this year as they shared their experiences with members from Douglas MacArthur High School. The club went Christmas Caroling at the Martin Luther, and Hoyt Nursing Homes. They also attended the Oktoberfest held in Midland.

Mrs. Buller, club advisor, said the club's purpose was not merely money making but more of a social activity. "Clubs like this help teach students foreign customs and tolerance for other cultures," she said.

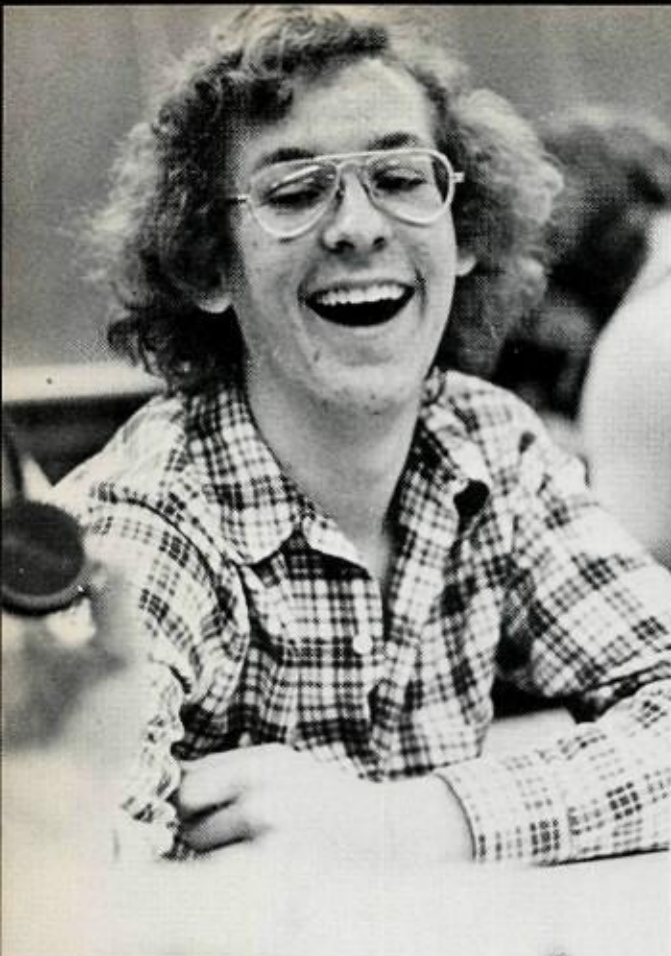

Deutsch Klub

Susanne Ebeling, exchange student from Germany and Lori Jakes, club president, learn more about foreign cultures.

Publications' Photographers

Terry Davis

Tom Woods

Eisenhower's photographers usually arrived at school by 7:30 a.m. and sometimes did not leave until 6:30 p.m. Their working environment consisted of a dark and muggy room, complete with stifling chemical vapors and claustrophobia. Some days they did not see the sun.

Their schedules were hectic and their work load demanding. Their time and efforts were rarely appreciated and they received little or no praise for their efforts. In spite of all of this, they suffered through impossible conditions to provide the Introspectus and The Word with award winning photojournalism.

Hampered by having the entire photography program cut, due to the millage failure, these six photographers endeavored to tackle the entire publications challenge.

Head photographers Phil Birney and Dennis Ullrich received awards in the Regional Educational Media Show. Ullrich received a first place rating for one of his photos and Birney received a second place rating. Both Ullrich and Birney had their work on display at the Delta Galleria's Spring Art Show.

In another local show sponsored by the Bay Area Photographer's Society, Phil Birney received four first place awards for his nature photography.

One of the highest honors of the year was an award for "Excellence in Photography" presented by the Michigan Interscholastic Press Association to the staff of photographers.

"A Star is Born"

Advisor Miss Ruth Anne Sowle relaxes between scenes.

"The Mouse that Roared," a comedy, and "The Miracle Worker," a drama, were the Drama Club sponsored productions this year. Miss Sowle's two student teachers, Ms. Janet Kohler and Ms. Donna Ullrich, assisted with costumes and publicity for the spring play. No musical was planned this year because of the lack of funding.

Members successfully sold frozen pizzas to help raise needed monies. With the help and guidance of advisor Miss Ruth Anne Sowle the 20-25 actors and actresses of the Drama Club had a very successful and enjoyable year.

Steve Huffman, Janet Matthias, and Mr. Emery Matthias lend a helping hand.

B.O.E.C.

The Business Office Education Club or BOEC, was established for students who were interested in office occupations.

Most of the students from BOEC were employed in the Co-op program, or in the clerical and secretarial block of classes.

Mrs. Bette Peterson was the advisor of BOEC. The club was involved in selling candy to raise money for the Employer Appreciation Banquet.

Sue Sharp, a member of BOEC Club, is ready to help you at Hudson's.

D.E.C.A.

The Distributive Education Clubs of America, consisted of students who were involved in the Co-op program and students taking classes such as bookkeeping, accounting and retailing. The advisor for the group this year was Mr. Terry Boswell.

Merchandise Block, a branch of DECA, involved students working in the school store. The students ordered, priced, and sold merchandise. Mr. Ken Winicki was the advisor.

A Journey of Adventure: Outdoors Club

The Outdoors Club was fun and laughter; sharing and helping for all involved. Along with Advisors, Mr. Rol Crane and Ms. Patty Clements, members enjoyed nature and life's fundamentals.

The Club introduced students to an adult's world today and the basics to survive in this world. To students it was a crash course to life and living.

The members of the Outdoors Club hiked across Michigan and went on a canoe trip; but their hopes for a Winter trip were buried when the snow fell.

The Outdoors Club is not only learning how to live in the outdoor world - but also keeping this world clean and getting involved with it.

The Outdoors Club poses for a picture before leaving on a hiking excursion. Are they all going in Ms. Patty Clement's truck?

Mr. Rol Crane, Advisor.

The Word says it all

Our School newspaper "The Word" was published approximately every two weeks by student journalists from Eisenhower. "The Word" staff is a member of the Quill and Scroll Honor Society, and the National Scholastic Press Association.

Students worked hard to write, edit, type, layout, and paste-up the newspaper before sending it to press. Together they learned to work together as a group and produce one of the finest papers that Eisenhower has ever seen.

Last year the 1976 Introspectus was rated by the Michigan Inter-scholastic Press Association for the first time. The book received a Mark of Excellence in Theme Development, Coverage of the Year, the Supplement, and the Womens' Sports section.

It also received recognition for exceptional photography from the MIPA.

This year the staff began doing its own paste-up and design. This was a money-saving effort due to rising printing and paper costs.

ACADEMICS

Board of Education

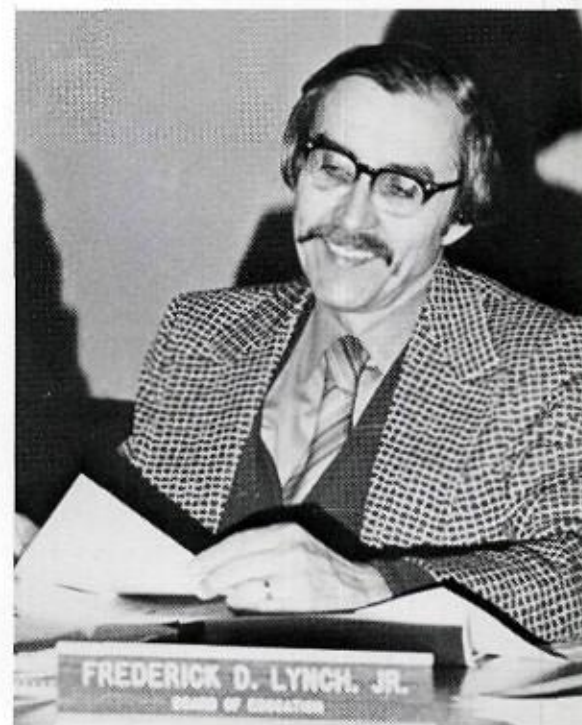

Mr. Frederick Foltz: President

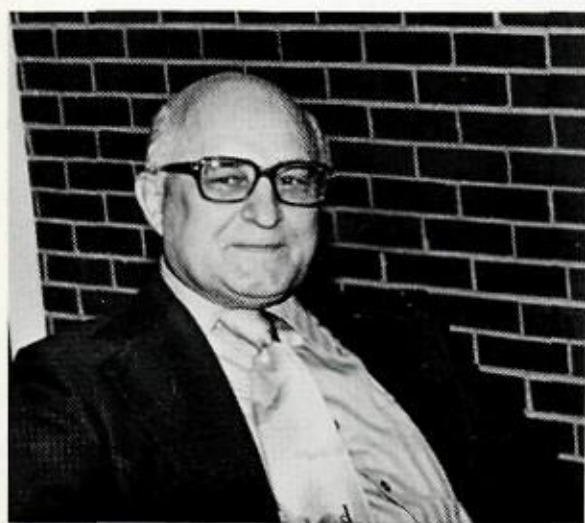

Decisions, opinions, ideas and differences make up our Board of Education. Around all these elements are seven hardworking people helping our community in many ways.

Meeting every third Monday of each month, the Board discusses problems in areas and fields concerning the township's educational system.

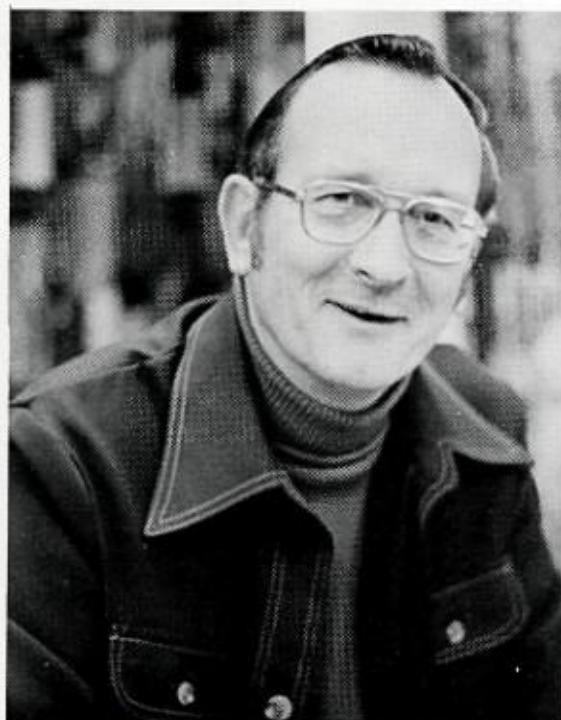

Thanks to them, they've kept our schools running smoothly.

Mr. Frederick Lynch: Treasurer.

Mr. Jules Warba: Trustee.

Mr. Warren Breithaupt: Trustee.

Mrs. Joanne McLeod: Trustee.

Mr. Richard Neiderquill: Vice-President.

Mr. Roland Jersevic: Secretary.

Mrs. Jeanne Borchard: Supervisor,
Food Services.

Mr. George Blesch: Director,
Pupil Personnel.

School Officials

Mr. Dan McConnell: Superintendent.

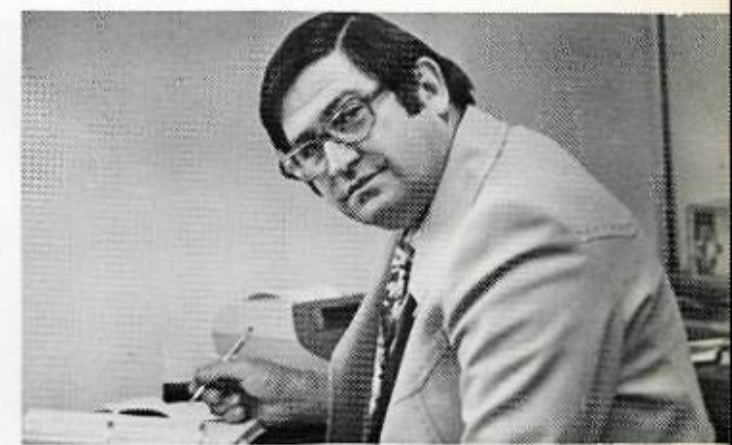

Many quick and important decisions have faced the school officials this year.

The millege defeat was a major problem which called for many extra hours of work, along with last minute meetings searching for new ideas.

With the board's and township residents' cooperation, new concepts were discovered for better way to improve these situations.

Mr. David Hinkin: Asst. Supt., Personnel.

Mr. Dale Klein: Asst. Supt., Business.

Dr. Jeremy Hughes: Asst. Supt.,

Mr. Richard Brown: Community School Director.

Mr. James King: Vocational Ed. Director.

Administrators

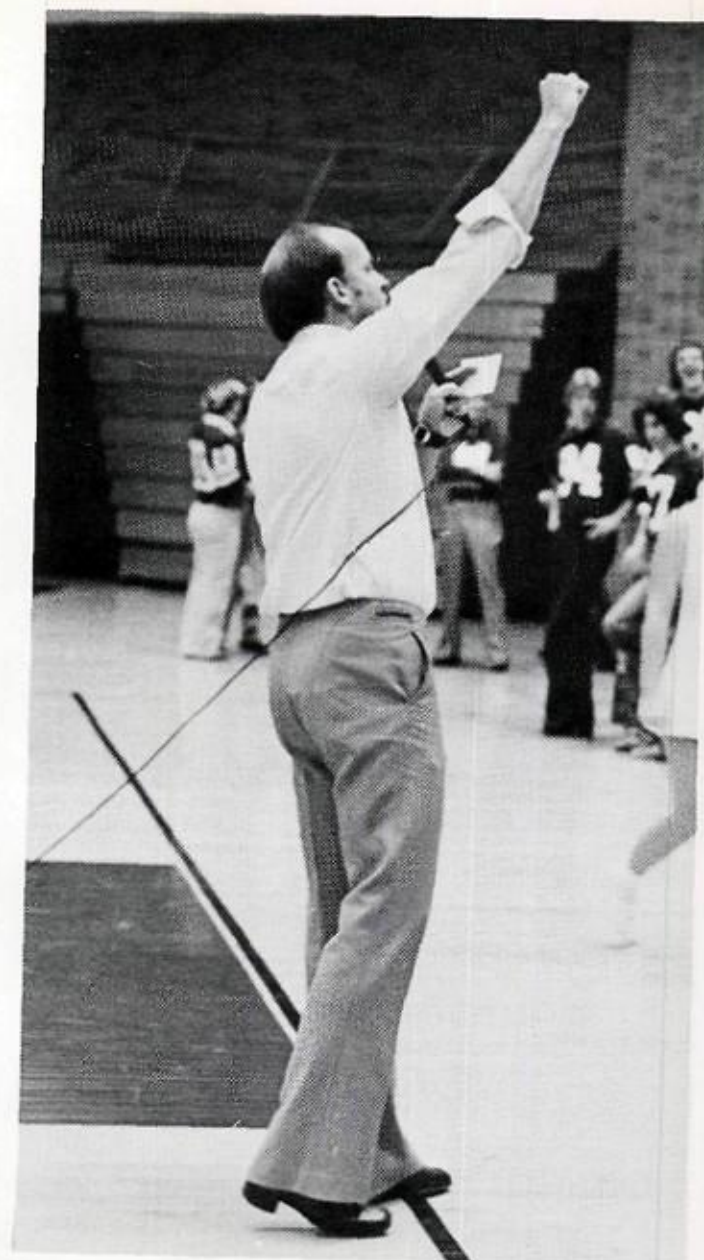

Keeping a school on its feet is a tough job and Ike has four men who can affirm that fact.

To keep the student body and staff working toward a common goal, these men used a "one to one" basis with both staff and student problems, large or small. After the mileage defeat, they went beyond their call of duty and served as teachers part of the time.

Mr. Doug Doane, Mr. Allan Larsen, Mr. "Chappy" Marvin, and Mr. Russ Spaulding built up a reputation for themselves, for the school, and for the student body which demanded nothing less than respect.

Maintenance and Meals

During their lunch break, part of Ike's maintenance crew, Dana, John, Joe and Ed discuss the news.

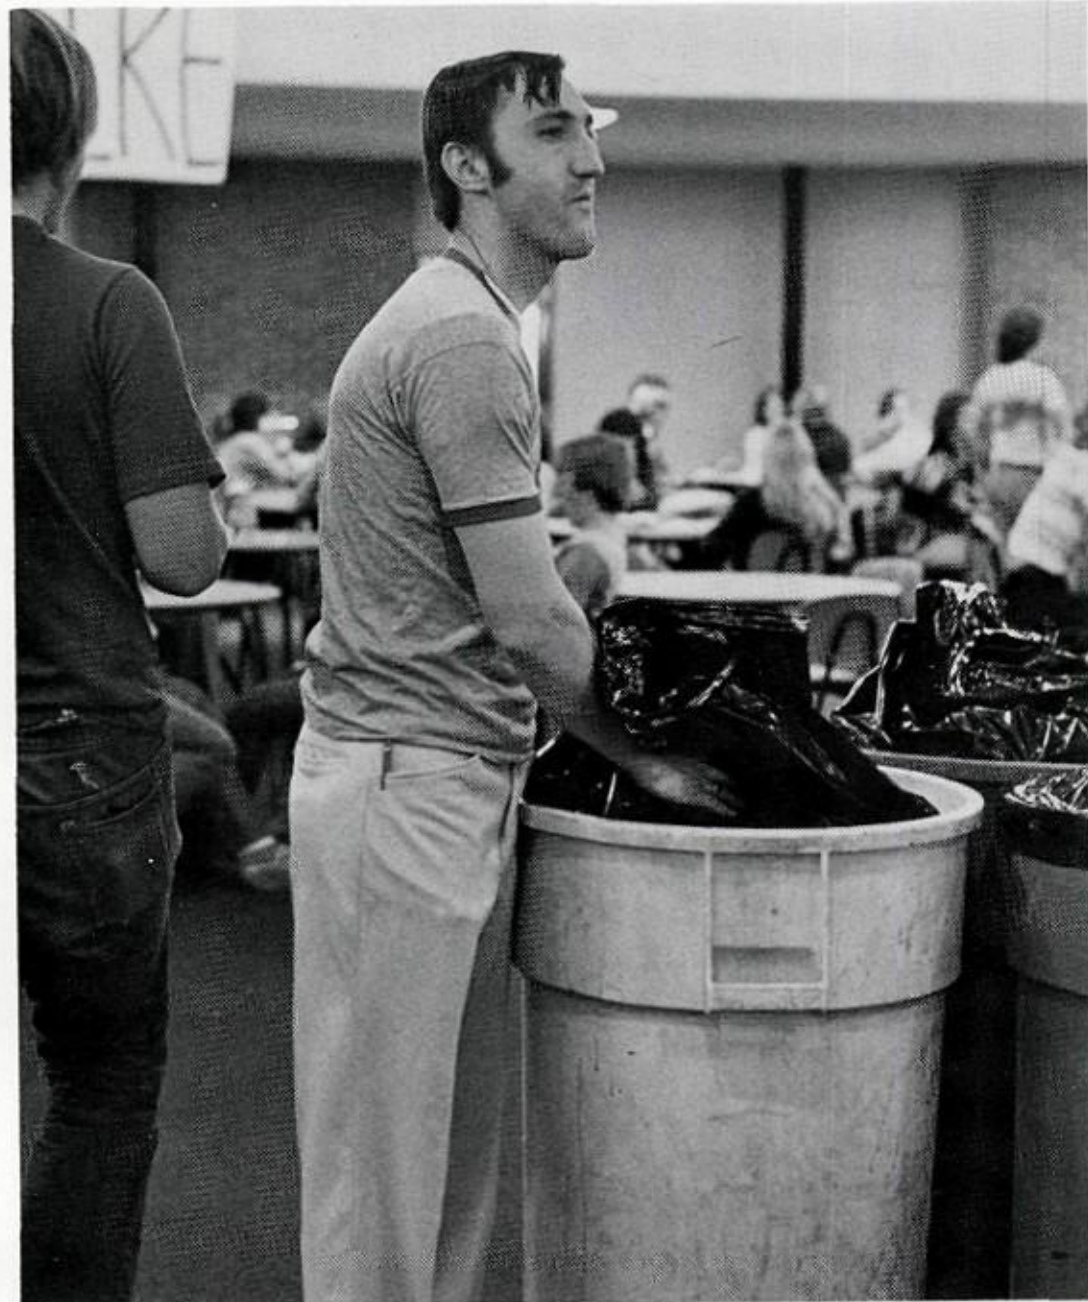

The Eisenhower maintenance and lunch crews have worked hard to provide a better atmosphere at Eisenhower.

The cooks served a well-balanced lunch program for all the students and teachers at Eisenhower. In addition to their noon-time meals the cooks were also involved in a well-received breakfast program.

Keeping our hallways and Student Center clean has always been a big job for our custodians. They managed the entire campus from repairing light fixtures to maintaining the football field and school grounds.

The Class of '78 has been, in alphabetical order, the most active, angelic, carefree, concerned, considerate, coolest, co-operative, cutest, desirable, energetic, enthusiastic, friendliest, fun-fullest, honest, industrious, intelligent, involved, kind, likeable, liveliest, loyal, most fun-loving, most disciplined, most profound, most worthy, nicest, proudest, "quickest," shyest, studious, toughest, trusting, trustworthy, vivacious, warm-hearted, wonderful, but most of all, humble and modest with still one year to go.

S.B. and A.B.: We've had some great times and I know we'll have many more. I hope we'll keep in touch and be friends always. Love, M.B.

Mrs. Bomber,

It was an uphill climb at times, but we made it. We've never had anyone spend as much time or care as much as you do! What would our year have been like without you. Saying thanks just doesn't seem good enough. How about, we love you. Varsity Pom-Pons.

Kathy: Do beer drinkers really make better lovers? K.H. and C.S.

Dean: The tennis courts were really fun this year. I can't wait till next season! Love, Barbie.

Dear James: Thanks for another super year! The cornfields were good but now that I have a watch. . . 1-4-3. Love, Annie.

Laura, Sandy, Sharon, Mary: Having friends as great as you made my senior year something special! Best of luck! Love Always, "Bov"

Roses are red, violets are blue, seniors are cool, what happened to the rest of the school?

Mr. Morgan, Mrs. Terbrack, and Mrs. Dunham: Thank you for all that you have done for me. I'll never forget any of you. Good luck and may you never have a sad moment. Bye for now. Michele.

Match Maker- you're sneaky, but we like you that way! Thanks and remember, no rassening in the halls.

To Mrs. Bomboske: The best coach ever. From: Bov, Bammy, Ro, Vardo, Floyd, Bones, Woody, Froggy, Mo, Jessy, Pebbles, Holler.

Thanks to all, friends or foe, for making 3 years really go. Especially you, I won't say who. J. Newy.

Dan, cornfields are seasonal, but yellow pants are year round, (Maybe after Senior Prom!) Love, Ruth.

Bye Boo Boo, we're gonna miss you.

Thank you Sue, Sandy, Sandie, Sue, Judy, Kim, Karen, and Fran. You too Julie. Carol.

Speaking of P.S.....Will Dan Callahan ever live down P.S.?

SENIOR CLASS, I KID YOU NOT, COMPARED TO US YOU'RE NOT SO HOT!
THE JUNIORS

There came a time when we all had to give up the trailer party days.

Deb- what would I do without you by my side? Thanks for all the wonderful times. Remember 1-4-3. Love ya, ME!

Bionic Bounce, Thanks for making my last year so special. Don't ever forget Lips, Snarf, Ernie's "fall," 3rd and 4th hour skips. Homecoming weekend, Sanford, St. Stephens, New Years Eve, football games, Uncle Chuck and Skibbs, "The Apartment," and all of our Mac Men. Love, Uggs.

J.M. got the first of them, D.C. got his for free, S.B. was number 3.

Jonathan Bing: Our pool game is waiting! 1-4-3 Forever. O.K. Robert? Love, Disco.

Eisenhower Band Freshmen: ! You're a great bunch of kids! Keep the spirit going! Your friendly neighborhood Drum Major(ette)

Becky, It wasn't that bad was it? B.A.

To my fellow dudes and drinking buddies. Well, we finally made it! (Hard to believe) You've been real pals! Another dude.

For my director, R.A.S., for my forensics coach, C.B., and for my journalism advisor, E.A.S. I wish to express profound gratitude for shaping my 4 years at Ike into beautiful memories. You will never be forgotten. Love, B.L.

for human beans
Thanks for sharing yourselves with me.
Your honesty has increased my education many times.

ZOOPORANGIUM, ZOOGEOGRAPHY, ZINGIBERACEOUS, ALEKSANDROVSK, ZEOPHATLMIA, ZIPHISTERNUM, VOROSHIORAD, TAUTOMERIZATION, doesn't mean much, but at 5 cents a word you can't lose!

Roxanne- May we both marry rich doctors, unless we find something better! Love, Lori.

Rodney, the snow was nice. Dee (Mouth)

Kanga: Remember I always get what I want! I am trying to be patient. Don't forget the 16th.

M. Annie

*The time has come for us to leave you.
Sorry friends but we must go!
We'll all come back some time and see you! But until then Later-(The Dudes 1,2, and 3)
'77 year of the dudes.*

Newspaper, Thanks for putting up with my "Spastic attacks!" Dee

Best wishes Black Diamond gang - D.J.

Lori: This past year is one I'll never forget. Thanks a million for being my friend! By the way, how many valentine's did you receive this year. . . Or have you forgotten? Love, Roxanne.

Good - Luck to the Senior Guys at the gold table, J.D., K.D., G.J., G.S., B.Y., R.Z., from the golden girls next door. We sent the flowers.

J.B., C.J., L.K., K.T., C.W., S.W.

Lori, Julie, Barb, Julie, Jeannette, Good Luck always. . . Love, Roxanne.

BRASS' BAHAMA, WILLY, SOUR. Thanks for all the great times. I never had friends so ~~ERZY~~ and SPECIAL as you. Love. Wendy

Cindy Bomboske: Thank you for all of your time, patience, and understanding! Debate and Forensics

J.V.N.: What do you do when you get a Big Mac attack?

Red area girls; Thanks for being my buddies.
Deebo.

Beth: I hope you'll remember what good friends we are when you're thinking of writing me a ticket; as a meter maid! Love, Mary.

Kath, Lynn, Wendy, Cyndi, Pamm, Sally, Linda, and Karen:
Thanks for all the fun we had. Your bizarre buddy, Kath.

Magoo: Forever dumb, no. Forever us, yea! Love, Chubs.

Hey Willy, remember: Our first tickled pink, our bet, first hour, the training bra, prom ??? guys??? Love, Wendrella.

Ruth: Guys don't make passes at girls who wear glasses!

Sue, John, Chrissy, Tom Meg, Wray: There are times that I'll never forget. Thanks for being a part of them. Also sorry for all of the yelling. Lizzie

Janet, Lena, and Bridget, "Break a leg" in the future. Love, Janet

The 1976-77 Drama Club thanks the number 1 Director in the world, Miss R.A. Sowle. "Take An Umbrella!"

Shell, Deb, Ann Roz, Missy, Melly, Lisa, and Sybil, Thanks so much for all of the great times we've had and for being such super friends. I LOVE YOU ALL!
Putty.

Al, Anne, Dan, Dennis, John, Julie & Julie, Karen, Kelly, Lori & Lori, Mary, Michele, Phil, Sharon, and Susan. Well sweethearts, it's late, but it is the best ever. Thank you for all of your care and work. Happiness to you all! Love, EAS

PMB: Thank you for the listening ear, the thoughtfulness, and the moral support. You're one in a million! Yeh Scavullo! EAS

Al: Remember that "John Norman Howard" burned out PERMANENTLY before he even reached 30! Behave yourself!
I care. EAS

Dennis: Could'nt have done it without you. Your 80 million extra hours of work and care have made the book what it is.
You're super!!! EAS

Barb, Bridget, Dennis, Marcy, Meg, Phil, Ramiro, Shawn, and Sue, Deadlines made you what you are today....frazzled, frantic, but FANTASTIC graduates. God bless you. I love you, EAS

Don't hold me back

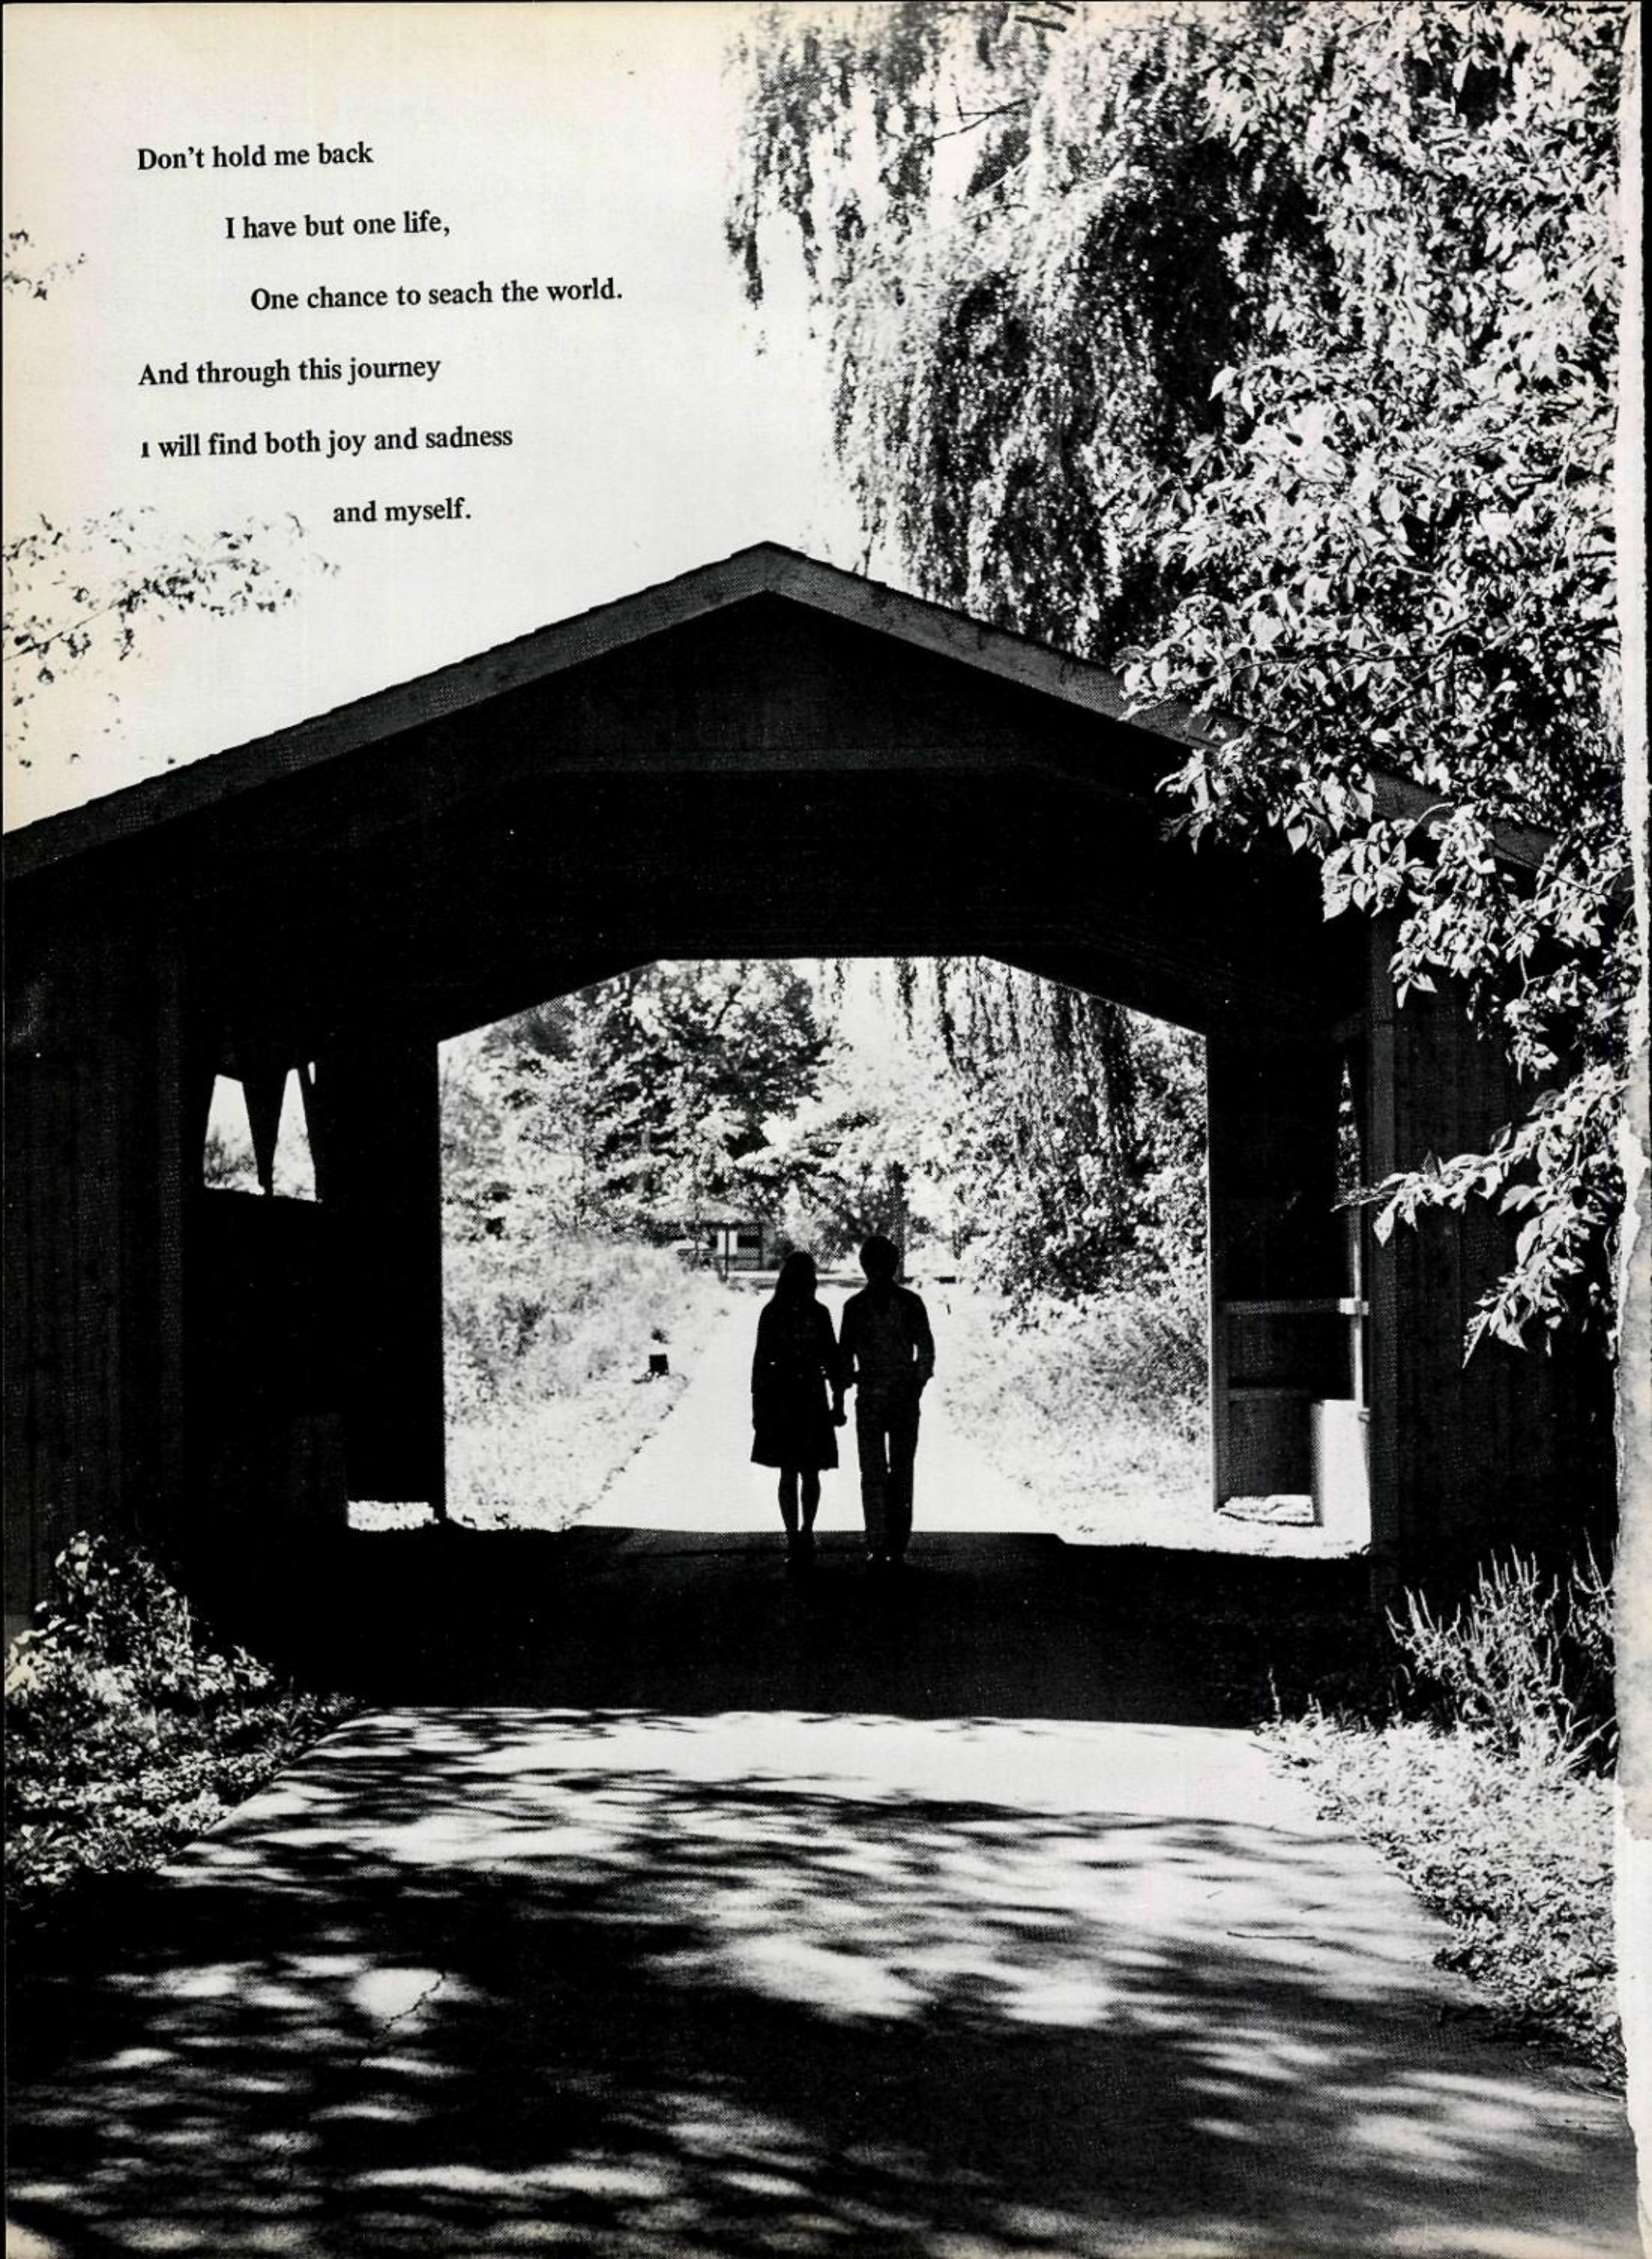

I have but one life,

One chance to seach the world.

And through this journey

I will find both joy and sadness and myself.

Blue Gene!

I love

you!

Thanks for being my friend! I think you are so neat. I'm still planning have to our going OK? really have the best of everything. I with you dancing, well

Take care, of everything.

Love you,

Kathy

TO GENE:

First you're in all my classes in school than you get a job in the same place I do.

Can't I ever
get rid of you?
(Just kidding)

Good Luck

SHERYL
OLATI

Same, other to the other half of the comedy team! I just think if we work together as long as we went to school together we'll probably retire together!
Good luck,
Marcia
